Aaron Craig helps businesses of all sizes and individuals involved in complex legal disputes utilizing litigation, mediation, arbitration and other forms of alternative dispute resolution reach beneficial outcomes in an efficient manner. With more than a decade of experience, he has built a track record of success in matters involving commercial, product liability, bad faith and insurance coverage, fiduciary, MDL and class-action, consumer protection and unfair trade practices, and general tort litigation.

Intentionally dedicated to understanding a client's business goals, Aaron develops strategies aimed at providing practical, common-sense legal guidance based on training and experience at large law firms with the responsiveness and personal attention Graves Garrett Greim provides. He has honed this approach in a wide range of high-profile regional and national matters.

Prior to entering private practice, Aaron completed a two-year judicial clerkship for the Hon. Judge Gary A. Fenner in the United States District Court for the Western District of Missouri.
