

SAL PARIS

Associate

sparis@gravesgarrett.com

Direct: (816) 285-3058

Sal Paris focuses his diverse private practice on all aspects of complex commercial litigation, white collar criminal defense, and government investigation processes.

Prior to joining Graves Garrett Greim in 2024, Sal worked as a summer associate at the firm, where he received training, mentorship, and exposure to clients and casework. During law school, he also completed internships with two other local firms, receiving beneficial exposure to a wide range of legal matters and processes, and spent time working in the Missouri State Public Defenders Office in Columbia, Missouri.

Sal brings proven abilities in conducting research and discovery, preparing memoranda and other legal documents, recommending strategies, and collaborating with attorneys and clients to prepare for successful depositions and hearings.

A native of Kansas City and graduate of Rockhurst High School, Sal earned his legal degree at the University of Missouri School of Law, graduating magna cum laude and Order of the Coif. He completed his undergraduate studies in justice systems with a minor in Spanish from Truman State University.

While in law school, Sal also served as a note and comment editor for the Missouri Law Review, which also published an article he authored.

PRACTICE AREAS

- White Collar Criminal Defense & Government Investigations
- Commercial and Business Litigation
- Government Investigations

EDUCATION

- University of Missouri Law School, J.D.
 - Missouri Law Review, note and comment editor
 - magna cum laude
 - Order of the Coif

- Truman State University, B.S., Justice Systems
 - Minor in Spanish

BAR ADMISSIONS

- Pending

COURT ADMISSIONS

- Pro hac vice across the nation as necessary